

Fun Activities To Do With Dad In Temecula Valley in June!

- Fishing Trip – Head to a nearby lake like Lake Skinner or Diamond Valley Lake for a relaxing fishing day.
- Hiking & Picnic – Explore the trails at Santa Rosa Plateau or Vail Lake and pack a lunch.
- Golf Day – Book a tee time at Temecula Creek Inn or Redhawk Golf Course.
- Hot Air Balloon Ride – Splurge on a sunrise ride over wine country.
- Car Show Visit – Many local wineries host Father’s Day car shows (Oak Mountain Winery, for example).
- Cornhole Tournament – Compete together or host one at home with friends and family.
- Home Project Day – Spend time working on a DIY project together (garage upgrades, yard work, or building something fun like a cornhole board).
- Backyard BBQ & Movie Night – Grill dinner and set up a projector for an outdoor movie.
- Board Games & Beer – A game night with classics like Risk, Cards Against Humanity, or even poker.
- Video Game Marathon – Challenge him in a favorite console or PC game—great for dads who grew up with gaming.
- Live Music or Comedy Show – Look for local events happening the weekend of Father’s Day.
- Sporting Event – Catch a baseball game (Lake Elsinore Storm games are nearby).
- Escape Room Challenge – Solve puzzles together for a fun team-building experience.

Eric Tomlinson

Eric Tomlinson was referred to us, I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to him for being so compassionate and extremely helpful during the difficult time of us losing our father. He sold my fathers house quickly and was very professional and honest. Thank you Eric!
